(The Evening Message)
I beg to urge you everyone:
Life and death is a grave matter;
all things pass quickly away.
Each of us must be completely alert;
never neglectful, never indulgent.

(Spoken by Guide): May we be able to show our gratitude to all women of the Dharma in all directions and in the Three Worlds. May we live our lives in such a way that we honor all those beings, women and men, known and unknown, who gave their lives to the Dharma for our present benefit. May the merit of this awaken the heart of Compassion and understanding all over the world, and thereby relieve suffering and ignorance. May all beings may prosper and all misfortune cease.

Three Homages

(All recite): Homage to all the Buddhas in all Worlds;
Homage to all the Bodhisattvas in all Worlds;
Homage to the Prāṇā Paramita Hridaya Sutra.

(Presenter and Offerer return to meditation places, making gassho to their meditation cushions and then across the hall, and then sit down. (Offerer may put out the lit incense.) Bell rings 2 times to end Puja. All gassho, initiated by the bell ringer, and put on malas.)

(Spoken by Guide): Meditation

(All gassho; then turn around for meditation. Bell rings 3 times to begin meditation. All gassho.)

Bell rings 2 times to end meditation. All gassho. On cue of the bell ringer, all rise, gassho to meditation place, then across the meditation hall.)

Meditation Dedication

(Hands in anjali.)

(Spoken by Guide): We offer the merit of this meditation to all so they may realize Truth.

Three Homages

(All recite): Homage to all the Buddhas in all Worlds;
Homage to all the Bodhisattvas in all Worlds;
Homage to the Prāṇā Paramita Hridaya Sutra.

(Bell ringer initiates the final gassho. All exit the meditation hall.)
